FOSTERING DIALOGUE,
RESEARCH AND COOPERATION
BETWEEN EUROPE
AND THE MEDITERRANEAN

IEMed.
European Institute of the Mediterranean

WHAT WE DO IN THE EURO-MEDITERRANEAN REGION

We promote dialogue between policy makers, researchers and civil society representatives.

We provide policy-oriented and evidence-based research underpinned by a multidimensional and inclusive approach.

We contribute to mutual understanding between the different countries, societies, and cultures.

We foster effective cooperation and partnerships between the two shores of the Mediterranean.

HOW

Acting as a hub for Mediterranean studies and research on issues ranging from security, human and sustainable development, gender equality, economy, migration, youth, and culture.

Leading and boosting regional networks of think tanks and civil society actors in the fields of security, socio-economic development, socio-cultural processes, gender equality and intercultural dialogue.

Carrying out EU-funded projects with a Euro-Mediterranean dimension with our signature expertise, participatory and inclusive approach.

WHY

Because we are committed since our foundation in 1989 to promoting the progressive construction of a space of peace and stability, shared prosperity and dialogue between cultures and civilisations in the Mediterranean.

INVOLVING WHO

Governments, academic institutions, think tanks, enterprises, civil society representatives and young leaders from the Mediterranean countries.

WHERE

Our headquarters are in Barcelona, the cradle of the Euro-Mediterranean Process launched in 1995 and the current seat of the Union for the Mediterranean since 2008.

We hold events across the Euro-Mediterranean region in collaboration with national institutions.

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 1989, the European Institute of the Mediterranean (IEMed) is a consortium made up of the Government of Catalonia, the Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the Barcelona City Council.
